PANDERING AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN FINLAND

Finnish Legislation

- Selling sexual services privately is legal
- Pandering is illegal
- Buying sexual services from a person involved in pandering or human trafficking is illegal

Finnish Legislation

- Finnish law differentiates the severity of the crime into two classes.
  - Pandering and aggravated pandering
  - Human trafficking and aggravated human trafficking
- Typical prostitution cases are classified as pandering or aggravated pandering

Pandering

- For pandering to be a crime:
  - A room has to be organised for sexual services or
  - Sexual services has to be marketed or
  - Intimidation of person to sexual services with gain of financial profits
- Sentence for pandering varies from fine to a prison sentence up to 6 years

Human trafficking

- For human trafficking to be a crime:
  - Give false information or mislead
  - Exploit the dependent situation
  - Forced labour or other purposes that violate human dignity - sexual services
  - The victim is under the control of offender
- Penalty for human trafficking is always prison sentence between 4 months to 10 years

Prostitution in Finland

- Prostitutes are mainly from Estonia and Russia
- Very few of the pimps are of Finnish origin
- Prostitutes are enlisted using internet or TV chat channels within their national country
- Prostitution conducted in hotels or private residences
- There are no brothels in Finland
- Prostitutes search customers from particular restaurants or via internet
- Street prostitution

Human trafficking in Finland

- Only few cases in trial - offenders convicted
- The conception of the different types of Human Trafficking has been enhanced
- The Immigrants are most vulnerable
